IMPORTANT NEWS

Withholding tax rates. Current withholding tax rates continue for 2021.

Form 1099-NEC. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) created Form 1099-NEC and redesigned Form 1099-MISC. Beginning with tax year 2020, businesses use Form 1099-NEC instead of Form 1099-MISC to report to the IRS amounts paid for services performed by someone who is not an employee of the business (nonemployee compensation).

For tax year 2020, businesses that must report nonemployee compensation to the department may submit either Form 1099-MISC or Form 1099-NEC.

Truncated Taxpayer Identification Numbers on Forms W-2 and 1099. As a safeguard against identity theft, the IRS allows payers to truncate a payee's taxpayer identification number (SSN, FEIN, or ITIN) on the copy of Form W-2 or 1099 that the payer gives to the payee. The department follows the IRS treatment.

Caution: Payers may not truncate the payee's social security number on any forms filed with the department, IRS, or Social Security Administration. Payers may not truncate their own identification number on any forms given to the payee or filed with the department, IRS, or Social Security Administration.

REMINDER

Federal Form W-4 cannot be used for Wisconsin withholding tax purposes. The Internal Revenue Service's redesigned 2020 Form W-4 removed federal allowances. Prior to this change, an employee could use Form W-4 for Wisconsin purposes, if the employee's federal allowances equaled his or her Wisconsin exemptions. Since federal allowances have been removed, the redesigned Form W-4 cannot be used for Wisconsin purposes. The following applies for Wisconsin withholding tax purposes beginning in 2020:

- All newly hired employees must provide Wisconsin Form WT-4 to their employer.
- Existing employees that change the number of their Wisconsin withholding exemptions must provide Wisconsin Form WT-4 to their employer.
- Existing employees are not required to provide Wisconsin Form WT-4 to their employer if the employee wishes to maintain the same number of Wisconsin withholding exemptions used in 2019.

Reporting requirement for employer withholding. Beginning January 1, 2019, employers filing quarterly, monthly, or semi-monthly cannot submit an annual reconciliation of Wisconsin tax withheld (WT-7) until all withholding deposit reports (WT-6) have been filed. The filer will get a rejection or error message if

1. The total withholding tax reported on the annual reconciliation is more than the total tax reported on the withholding deposit reports or
2. One or more withholding deposits have not been filed. Withholding deposits can be in pending status with a future payment date.

This requirement reduces the number of penalties imposed on the annual reconciliation and reduces appeals (see Wisconsin Tax Bulletin #203).

Application to submit W-2 information. We created a My Tax Account (MTA) application that allows businesses to key in and submit W-2 and 1099 information at any time during the year. The application makes it easier to submit information returns omitted from previous submissions. It also provides a user-friendly option for those that don't have an active withholding account but have a need to submit W-2s or 1099s.

Nonresident entertainer reporting. Beginning in 2019, the nonresident entertainer withholding report (Form WT-11) is tax-year specific and allows you to report withholding for multiple nonresident entertainers. Nonresident entertainers may request a lower withholding rate using Form WT-12. You may file these forms electronically through MTA.

W-2s and information returns required to be filed with the department are due January 31. See Publication 117, Guide to Wisconsin Wage Statements and Information Returns for more information.

We may not issue a refund to an employed individual before March 1, unless the individual and individual's employer have filed all required returns and forms for the taxable year for which the individual claims a refund.

1. FEDERAL EMPLOYER'S TAX GUIDE

Wisconsin individual income and withholding tax laws generally conform to the federal Internal Revenue Code. Most definitions and instructions are identical to those used by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and published in the Federal Employer's Tax Guide Circular E (Publication 15) and the Employer's Supplemental Tax Guide (Publication 15-A). These publications may be obtained at your local IRS office, or by calling 1-800-829-3676.

2. REGISTRATION AND ACCOUNT INFORMATION

A. Application Process

Every employer who pays wages subject to Wisconsin withholding, or voluntarily withholds Wisconsin tax, must register for a Wisconsin withholding tax number. Register online at tap.revenue.wi.gov/btr or complete Form BTR-101, Application for Wisconsin Business Tax Registration. An application may also be obtained by contacting any of our local offices, or by calling (608) 266-2776.

If you register online you will receive a Wisconsin withholding tax number within one to two business days. No expedite fee is charged for this service. Allow 15 business days for processing of paper applications.

Fully complete your application. Failure to include information such as the first date of withholding, your federal employer identification number, or an estimate of the amount of tax to be withheld could delay the processing of your application.

Business Tax Registration Renewal Fee: The initial $20 registration fee covers a period of two years. At the end of that period, a $10 renewal fee applies every two years to all persons holding permits or certificates subject to Business Tax Registration provisions.

Expedited Fee: You may receive immediate service on your application when you visit the department's Madison office located at 2135 Rimrock Road or when you fax your application to (608) 264-6884 as explained below. We charge a $10 expedite fee for this service.

When faxing the application:

- Include a cover sheet with the contact's name, fax and telephone numbers,
- Use black ink,
- Write "Expedite" across top of application.

B. Wisconsin Withholding Tax Number

Employers should use the 15-digit Wisconsin withholding tax number assigned to your business for all state withholding tax reporting.

The Wisconsin withholding tax number has 15 digits and appears as: 036-0000000000-00. You will retain your number permanently, unless you no longer have a withholding requirement and close your account. If you have more than one withholding tax number, notify us. We will let you know which number to use.

Each corporation (subsidiary) of an affiliated group, which has its own employees and its own federal employer identification number, must apply for its own Wisconsin withholding tax number. Each corporation is considered a separate employer. Unlike the Internal Revenue Service, Wisconsin does not permit the use of a common paymaster. However, a corporation that has several divisions (not separate entities) must have a single Wisconsin withholding tax number to report withholding for all divisions.

The Wisconsin withholding tax number is different from the federal employer identification number. Always use the Wisconsin withholding tax number when corresponding with us.

C. Filing Frequency

We assign your filing frequency based on information provided in your application. If your withholding liability changes, you may be notified in writing of a change to your filing frequency starting with the period beginning January 1 of the next calendar year.

Send requests to file more frequently by letter or email. You must include the reason you are requesting a change and your Wisconsin withholding tax number. Mail your request to Wisconsin Department of Revenue,

Mail Stop 3-80, P.O. Box 8902, Madison, WI 53708-8902 or email your request to DORWithholdingTax@wisconsin.gov.

Continue to file according to your assigned filing frequency. If we approve your request, we will send you a letter with the new filing frequency and effective date.

D. Reactivate Withholding Account

If you resume business or rehire employees, and previously held a Wisconsin withholding tax number, request reinstatement of your prior number if ownership of your business is the same. Call (608) 266-2776 or email your request to DORWithholdingTax@wisconsin.gov.

E. Change in Business Entity

If you change your business entity (e.g., sole proprietorship to partnership or corporation, or partnership to corporation) you must obtain a new Wisconsin withholding tax account number. An employer who acquires the business of another employer may NOT use the former employer's tax number. The new employer must apply for his or her own number.

Note: The department has adopted a policy similar to the IRS regarding partner changes. Generally, if you are required to obtain a new federal employer identification number, you are also required to register for a new Wisconsin withholding tax number.

A continuing partnership with an ownership change of less than 50% may continue using the same Wisconsin withholding tax account number. When the change in ownership is 50% or more, follow federal requirements. If a new federal identification number is required, a new Wisconsin withholding number is required. Send the names, addresses, and social security numbers of added or dropped partners to the department within 10 days after a change takes place.

A separate annual reconciliation (WT-7) and wage and information returns must be filed for each legal entity.

Single-Member LLC

A disregarded entity is automatically considered an "employer" for purposes of federal withholding taxes. Wisconsin follows this treatment. This means a single-owner entity that is disregarded as a separate entity under Internal Revenue Code is an "employer" for Wisconsin withholding tax purposes.

As an "employer," a disregarded entity must obtain a Wisconsin withholding tax number.

3. GENERAL WITHHOLDING INFORMATION

A. Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate

The Wisconsin Withholding Exemption Certificate (Form WT-4) is used to determine the amount of Wisconsin income tax to be withheld from employee wages. Every newly-hired employee must give Form WT-4 to his or her employer. Employers may also use this form to comply with new hire reporting requirements.

B. Special Situations Regarding Form WT-4 and Form WT-4A

Additional withholding: If the amount withheld is insufficient to meet an employee's annual income tax liability, the employee can avoid making estimated tax payments or paying a large amount with their income tax return by reducing the number of withholding exemptions claimed. If no exemptions are claimed, and under withholding still results, the employee may designate an additional amount to be withheld using Wisconsin Form WT-4 or submit a written request to the employer to have an additional amount withheld each pay period.

Less withholding: If the maximum number of allowable exemptions is claimed and over withholding still occurs, the employee may request the employer withhold a lesser amount. In such instances, the employee must complete an Employee Withholding Agreement (Form WT-4A).

The employee must provide a copy of the agreement to the employer and the department. The department is authorized to void an agreement by written notification to the employer and employee if it is determined that the agreement is incorrect or incomplete.

No withholding: An employer is not required to deduct and withhold Wisconsin income tax from the employee's wages when the employee certifies to the employer on Form WT-4 that the employee had no income tax liability for the prior year and anticipates no liability for the current year. Federal Form W-4 cannot be used by an employee to claim complete exemption from Wisconsin withholding. See item C, for an explanation of the employer's responsibility to furnish a copy of the exemption certificate to this department.

Employers must retain copies of Forms WT-4 and WT-4A submitted by their employees.

Note: A claim for total exemption from withholding tax must be renewed annually. Employers should review their records at the beginning of each year to ensure they have a current Form WT-4 on file for each employee claiming total exemption from withholding tax.

Employees who prepay their Wisconsin income tax: An employee may prepay with the department 100 percent of his or her estimated tax for the next year before the last day of the current year.

We will issue a Certificate of Exemption from Wisconsin Income Tax Withholding (Form W-200) for the employee to present to his or her employer. The employee is then entitled to a complete exemption from Wisconsin withholding for the designated year. This is a voluntary action by the employee and may not be forced by the employer. The employer should not ask the employee to complete, nor should the employer accept, a Form WT-4 which claims total exemption for the year of the prepayment.

See our Prepayment of Tax common question for additional information.

C. Employees Claiming Exemption from Withholding (Form WT-4)

Wisconsin law requires that a copy of Form WT-4 be filed with the department whenever either of the following conditions exists:

- The employee claims more than 10 exemptions.
- The employee claims complete exemption from Wisconsin withholding and earns over $200 a week.

Employers. Send Forms WT-4 claiming more than 10 exemptions or complete exemption from withholding to Wisconsin Department of Revenue, Audit Bureau, P.O. Box 8906, Madison, WI 53708-8906.

Copies of employee exemption certificates filed during a quarter must be submitted at the end of the quarter. No copy is required if the employee is no longer working for the employer at the end of the quarter.

We will review certificates filed by the employer upon receipt. Employers withhold taxes as requested by their employee, unless the employer receives written instructions from the department to withhold on some other basis.

Employees. When an employee claims complete exemption from Wisconsin withholding tax, a new Form WT-4 must be filed annually. The employer must receive a completed Form WT-4 for the current income year on or before April 30, of that year. If the employee fails to furnish an exemption form, the employee shall be considered as claiming zero withholding exemptions.

D. Withholding Calculator

An employee with too much or too little withheld from his or her paycheck may find our withholding calculator helpful. The calculator estimates the amount of Wisconsin income tax withheld by an employer based on the number of withholding exemptions the employee claims, the employee's withholding status and pay information. To access the calculator, download the Department of Revenue Mobile App.

E. New Hire Reporting Requirements

All employers with a federal employer identification number must report all newly-hired or rehired employees to the New Hire Program within 20 days of hire or re-hire.

The easiest and most cost effective way to report new hires is via the Internet. For more information, visit the Wisconsin New Hire Reporting Center or contact the New Hire Processing Center toll free at 1-888-300-4473.

F. Wages Paid to Residents who Work Outside Wisconsin

Wages paid to Wisconsin residents are subject to Wisconsin withholding, whether paid for services performed entirely in Wisconsin, partly in and partly outside Wisconsin, or entirely outside Wisconsin. The Secretary of Revenue may authorize special withholding arrangements in hardship cases resulting from situations in which persons domiciled in Wisconsin are subjected to withholding in some other state because they perform substantial personal services in such other state.

G. Special Minnesota Withholding Arrangement

The Secretary of Revenue has authorized a special withholding arrangement for employers of Wisconsin residents working in Minnesota. Wisconsin withholding will not be required under the following circumstances:

- The employee is a legal resident of Wisconsin (i.e., domiciled in Wisconsin) when the wages are earned in Minnesota, and
- The wages earned in Minnesota by the Wisconsin resident are subject to Minnesota withholding and would also be subject to Wisconsin withholding.

Employees who do not have Wisconsin income tax withheld from wages earned in Minnesota must make regular estimated tax payments if they expect to owe $500 or more with their Wisconsin income tax return for the year. For more information see the Withholding and Tax Filing webpage.

H. Out-of-State Disaster Relief Responders

Qualifying out-of-state employers and out-of-state employees are allowed an exemption from employer withholding registration and income tax reporting requirements, if the qualifying employer or employee is in Wisconsin solely to perform disaster relief work in connection with a state of emergency declared by the Governor.

"Disaster relief work" means work, including repairing, renovating, installing, building, or performing other services or activities, relating to infrastructure in this state that has been damaged, impaired, or destroyed in connection with a declared state of emergency.

"Infrastructure" includes property and equipment owned or used by a telecommunications provider or cable operator or that is used for communications networks, including telecommunications, broadband, and multichannel video networks; electric generation, transmission, and distribution systems; gas distribution systems; water pipelines; and any related support facilities that service multiple customers or citizens, including buildings, offices, lines, poles, pipes, structures, equipment, and other real or personal property.

In order to claim an exemption under the Act, the qualifying business or employee must contact the department within 90 days of the last day of the disaster period. See Publication 411, Disaster Relief, for more information. The above provisions first apply to taxable years beginning on January 1, 2015.

I. Wages Paid to Nonresidents Who Work in Wisconsin

All wages paid to nonresidents (persons domiciled outside Wisconsin), for services performed in Wisconsin*, are subject to withholding unless:

- (1) Employers are interstate rail or motor carriers, subject to the jurisdiction of the federal Interstate Commerce Commission and the employee regularly performs duties in two or more states.
- (2) Payment is for retirement, pension and profit sharing benefits received after retirement.
- (3) Employees are residents of a state with which Wisconsin has a reciprocity agreement; refer to the Reciprocity section.
- (4) Employees are residents of a state with which Wisconsin does not have a reciprocity agreement and either:
  - (a) the employer is an interstate air carrier and the employee earns 50% or less of his or her compensation in Wisconsin, or
  - (b) the employer can reasonably expect the annual Wisconsin earnings to be less than $1,500.

If the employee wage estimate in 4b above exceeds $1,500, the employer must withhold from wages paid thereafter, sufficient amounts to offset amounts not withheld from wages previously paid.

* If a nonresident earns wages both in and outside of Wisconsin, only that part of the wages earned in Wisconsin in each payroll period is subject to Wisconsin withholding. It may be necessary for the employer to make a reasonable division of wages for each payroll period with regard to services performed in and outside of Wisconsin. The employer may also be required to withhold income tax for the employee's state of residence. Contact the department in that state for more information.

Reciprocity: Wisconsin has reciprocity agreements with Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, and Michigan. Persons who employ residents of those states are not required to withhold Wisconsin income taxes from wages paid to such employees. Written verification is required to relieve the employer from withholding Wisconsin income taxes from such employee's wages. Form W-220, Nonresident Employee's Withholding Reciprocity Declaration, may be used for this purpose.

J. Nonresident Employers

Employers engaged in business in Wisconsin (e.g., organized under Wisconsin law, licensed to do business in Wisconsin, or transacting business in Wisconsin) have the same requirements to withhold as Wisconsin employers.

Employers who are not engaged in business in Wisconsin, but who employ Wisconsin residents outside of Wisconsin, may voluntarily register to withhold Wisconsin tax. If the employer chooses not to withhold the tax, the employee may be required to make estimated payments of Wisconsin income tax. Payments may be made electronically through our Online Services for businesses or by using Form 1-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals, Estates and Trusts.

K. Withholding on Nonresident Entertainers

All payments made to a nonresident entertainer for performing in Wisconsin, except those excluded from the total contract price, are presumed subject to withholding if the total contract price for the performance is more than $7,000. The "employer" must file Form WT-11 within five days of the conclusion of the nonresident entertainer's performance and withhold 6% of the total contract price, unless a lower rate is approved.

Exception: There is no requirement to withhold from the nonresident entertainer's payment if:

- The total contract price is $7,000 or less,
- The nonresident entertainer provides the employer proof of filing a sufficient bond or deposit with the department at least seven days prior to the performance in Wisconsin, or
- The nonresident entertainer provides the employer a copy of a waiver issued by the department.

Total contract price does not include travel expense payments made to, or on behalf of, an entertainer that are 1) made under an accountable plan and 2) for actual transportation, lodging, and meals that are directly related to the entertainer's performance in Wisconsin.

A nonresident entertainer generally must file a surety bond or cash deposit in the amount of 6% of the total contract price at least seven days prior to the Wisconsin performance. To make a cash deposit, please contact the Pass-Through Entity Review Unit by telephone at (608) 264-1032 or by email: dorincomepte@wisconsin.gov for assistance in making the cash deposit payment.

If the entertainer is required to file a surety bond or deposit and fails to do so, the "employer" must withhold. This withholding is separate from regular employee withholding and applies only to nonresident entertainers. Any tax withheld under this nonresident entertainer law must be submitted separately from regular withholding taxes.

If the amount withheld and Form WT-11 are not sent electronically through My Tax Account:

- Mail Form WT-11 and the amount withheld to Wisconsin Department of Revenue, PO Box 8991, Madison WI 53708-8991, or
- Deliver to the department's Madison office at 2135 Rimrock Road.

One copy of Form WT-11 should be given to the nonresident entertainer and one copy should be retained by the employer. If you need more information on Form WT-11, call (608) 264-1032.

A nonresident entertainer is:

- A nonresident person who furnishes amusement, entertainment, or public speaking services, or performs in one or more sporting events in Wisconsin for consideration or,
- A foreign corporation, partnership, or other type of entity not regularly engaged in business in Wisconsin, that derives income from amusement, entertainment, or sporting events in Wisconsin or from the services of a nonresident person as defined above.

"Employer" is a resident person who contracts for the performance of a nonresident entertainer. If there is no such person, "employer" is the person who has receipt, custody or control of the event proceeds.

For more information, see Publication 508, Wisconsin Tax Requirements Relating to Nonresident Entertainers.

L. Withholding for Noncash Fringe Benefits

Taxable noncash fringe benefits provided to employees must be treated as additional wages that are subject to withholding. Generally the determination of whether a fringe benefit is taxable for Wisconsin is based on federal income tax law. Noncash fringe benefits that are subject to federal withholding tax are also subject to Wisconsin withholding, at the same value and for the same payroll period.

Examples of taxable noncash fringe benefits that are subject to withholding include: use of employer-provided automobiles for commuting, an employer-provided vacation, free or discounted commercial airline flights, and employer-provided tickets to entertainment events.

The amount of Wisconsin income tax to be withheld from an employee who receives taxable noncash fringe benefits can be determined by:

- (1) Combining the employee's taxable noncash fringe benefits and regular wages and determining the withholding as though the total constituted a single wage payment.
- (2) Treating the taxable noncash fringe benefit as a supplemental wage payment and determining the amount to be withheld by following the instructions for supplemental wage payments found on page 24 of this guide.

Note: Federal law permits an employer to elect not to withhold federal income tax for taxable noncash fringe benefits which employees realize from the use of an employer-provided vehicle. Employers who make this election for federal purposes will not be required to withhold Wisconsin income tax for the same vehicle fringe benefits.

M. Health Savings Accounts

Effective for taxable years beginning in 2011 and thereafter, Wisconsin follows federal provisions relating to HSAs. The only difference is the imposition of penalties. For details, see Fact Sheet 1105, Health Savings Accounts.

N. Third Party Sick Pay

Wisconsin does not follow the federal provisions relating to payments of sick pay made by third parties (e.g., an insurance company). Wisconsin statutes provide that when a third party payer of sick pay makes payments directly to the employee and the employee has provided a written request to withhold Wisconsin income tax from those payments, the third party payer must report and remit the income tax withheld from sick pay, not the employer.

For Wisconsin purposes, the payer of third party sick pay plans who withhold Wisconsin income tax must issue a wage statement (federal Form W-2) directly to the individual who received the sick pay. The Form W-2 must report the amount of taxable sick pay and the total amount of Wisconsin income tax withheld.

O. Pensions

If a pension recipient requests in writing that Wisconsin income tax be withheld from his or her pension, the payer, if engaged in business in Wisconsin, must withhold tax in accordance with Wisconsin withholding tables in this booklet or in the amount that the pension recipient designates to the payer. However, the amount withheld from each pension payment may not be less than $5.

P. Reporting of Wages for Agricultural, Domestic, or Other Employees Exempt from Withholding

"Wages" means all remuneration for services performed by an employee for an employer. Wages are subject to Wisconsin withholding tax with the exception of agricultural, domestic or other employee wages exempt from withholding as provided in sec. 71.63, Wis. Stats.

All entities with activities in Wisconsin whether paying taxable wages or not, are required to provide their payees a federal Form W-2, 1099-MISC, 1099-NEC, or 1099-R and should follow these reporting guidelines:

- Wages, regardless of the amount, are to be reported on federal Form W-2.
- All payments which are not wages but from which Wisconsin income tax has been withheld are to be reported on federal Form W-2, 1099-MISC, 1099-NEC, or 1099-R as appropriate.
- Payments of $600 or more that are not wages and from which no Wisconsin income tax has been withheld are to be reported on federal Form W-2, 1099-MISC, 1099-NEC, or 1099-R as appropriate. Note: If these payments are not required to be reported to the Internal Revenue Service, they may be reported to the department on Wisconsin Form 9b instead of the federal form.

If you do not hold a Wisconsin withholding tax number because you are not required to withhold from employees' wages (agriculture, domestic, etc.), did not withhold, and never held a Wisconsin withholding tax number, enter 03688888888801 on the W-2 in the box titled "Employer's State ID Number."

Forms W-2, W-2G, 1099-MISC, and 1099-R must be filed with the department as outlined in Publication 117, Guide to Wisconsin Wage Statements and Information Returns. If the forms include Wisconsin withholding, you must also file the annual reconciliation (WT-7) by January 31. If the due date falls on a weekend or legal holiday, the due date becomes the business day immediately following the weekend or legal holiday.

Q. Willful Misclassification Penalty for Construction Contractors

Any employer engaged in the construction of roads, bridges, highways, sewers, water mains, utilities, public buildings, factories, housing, or similar construction projects who willfully provides false information to the department, or who willfully and with intent to evade any withholding requirement, misclassifies or attempts to misclassify an individual who is an employee of the employer as a nonemployee shall be fined $25,000 for each violation.

R. Payments Made to Decedent Estate or Beneficiary

Various types of payments are made to the estate or to beneficiaries of a deceased employee which result from the deceased person's employment. The department follows IRS policy in determining whether withholding of income tax is required from these payments.

SUBJECT TO WITHHOLDING: An uncashed check originally received by a decedent prior to the date of death and reissued to the decedent's personal representative shall be subject to withholding of Wisconsin income tax.

NOT SUBJECT TO WITHHOLDING: The following types of payments to a decedent's personal representative or heir shall not be subject to withholding of Wisconsin income tax:

- Payments representing wages accrued to the date of death but not paid until after death.
- Accrued vacation and sick pay.

- Termination and severance pay.
- Death benefits such as pensions, annuities and distributions from a decedent's interest in an employer's qualified stock bonus plan or profit sharing plan, as provided in sec. 71.63\(6\)\(j\), Wis. Stats.

4. DEPOSITING WITHHELD TAXES

A. Reporting Requirements

Wisconsin income taxes are to be withheld from employees in accordance with the instructions in this guide. Withholding liability is incurred when wages are paid to employees, not when wages are earned. The tax withheld is to be held in trust for the state by the employer and remitted via the withholding deposit report (WT-6) or annual reconciliation (WT-7), according to each employer's assigned filing frequency.

Withholding deposit reports and the annual withholding reconciliation must be submitted electronically unless you've been granted a department waiver from electronic filing. Annual filers are not required to file deposit reports.

WAGE ATTACHMENTS: Amounts collected from certification (garnishment) of employee wages should NOT be remitted with Wisconsin income tax withheld from employees. All employers must submit wage attachment payments electronically unless they have been granted an exception. We offer two electronic payment methods:

- My Tax Account
- ACH Credit

For more information about Wage Attachment Payments, visit our website.

C. Reporting Periods

The filing frequency assigned to you by the department has a set number of reporting periods per calendar year. When determining the appropriate reporting period, it is helpful to remember that withholding liability is incurred when wages are paid to the employee, not when wages are earned.

Filing Frequency	# of Reporting Periods Per Calendar Year		Tax Period End Date
	WT-7	WT-6
Annual	1	*	12/31
Quarterly	1	4	3/31, 6/30, etc.
Monthly	1	12	1/31, 2/28, etc.
Semi-monthly	1	24	1/15, 1/31, etc.

* No WT-6 deposit report required

Example: A semi-monthly filer must file a report for the 1st through the 15th of the month and a report for the 16th through the end of month. An employer filing on a semi-monthly basis pays employees on January 11. As a result, the income tax withheld is reported in the period ending January 15 (tax period end date). This report is due to the department by January 31 (tax period due date).

Example: An employer filing on a monthly basis pays employees on December 26. As a result, the income tax withheld is reported for period ending December 31 (tax period end date). This report is due to the department by January 31 (tax period due date).

A withholding deposit report must be submitted regardless of whether taxes are withheld during the period.

ACH debit payments made via the My Tax Account program must be initiated by 4:00 p.m. central standard time of the due date to be considered timely paid. The electronic withholding deposit report must be made by the due date to be considered timely filed.

All withholding filers with an active withholding tax account are required to file an annual reconciliation (WT-7).

D. Reporting Changes to Wisconsin Employer Account Information

Employers are obligated to keep the department current of any changes of name or address. You can notify the department by one of the methods below:

- Submit address change through My Tax Account
- Email: DORRegistration@wisconsin.gov
- Write: Wisconsin Department of Revenue, PO Box 8902, Madison, WI 53708-8902
- Fax to: (608) 264-6884, Attn: Registration Unit

E. Filing Due Dates

Note: If the original due date falls on a weekend or holiday, the return and/or payment is due the business day following the weekend or holiday.

Deposit Reports (WT-6)

Annual filers – No deposit report required. Withholding is reported on annual reconciliation.

Monthly or quarterly filers – Deposit report is due on or before the last day of the month following the monthly or quarterly withholding period.

Semi-monthly filers – When the employee pay date is on or between the 1st and the 15th of the month, the amount deducted and withheld for the period ending the 15th of the month is due on or before the last day of the month.

When the employee pay date is on or between the 16th and the end of the month, the amount deducted and withheld for the period ending the last day of the month is due on or before the 15th of the following month.

Example: An employee is paid December 16. The employer reports withholding on the deposit report for period ending December 31. This deposit report is due January 15.

Annual Reconciliation (WT-7)

All filers – The annual reconciliation, wage statements, and information returns are due to the department by January 31, the last day of the month following the calendar year. When the withholding account is closed before December 31, the annual reconciliation is due within 30 days of the account cease date. File wage and information returns reflected on the reconciliation by January 31.

F. Extensions

The department may grant a one-month extension to file the deposit report (WT-6). Extension requests must be received by the original due date of the deposit report.

Note: Interest will be imposed during the one-month extension period at the rate of one percent. To request an extension, do one of the following:

- Complete the Request Extension to File in My Tax Account
- Email DORRegistration@wisconsin.gov
- Write to Wisconsin Department of Revenue, P.O. Box 8902, Madison, WI 53708-8902
- Fax to (608) 264-6884

G. Failure to File or Pay by the Due Date

Failure to receive a Wisconsin withholding tax account number does not relieve the employer from timely reporting and depositing the tax withheld.

Late filing fee: Any person who is required to file a withholding report and deposit withholding taxes that fails to do so timely and the department shows that the taxpayer's action or inaction was due to the taxpayer's willful neglect and not to reasonable cause, shall be subject to a $50 late fee, except for corporations taxed under subch. IV or insurance companies taxed under subch. VII of ch. 71, Wis. Stats., the late fee is $150.

Penalties: Any employer who fails or refuses to file a report or statement or remit taxes withheld from employee wages on or by the due date may be subject to penalties upon a showing by the department that the taxpayer's action or inaction was due to the taxpayer's willful neglect and not to reasonable cause.

A negligence penalty of 5% of the tax due for each month the report is filed after the due date may be imposed. The maximum negligence penalty for late filing is 25% of the tax due. The negligence penalty may be waived on appeal if a return is filed late due to reasonable cause.

A penalty of 25% of the amount not withheld or properly reported, deposited or paid over may also be imposed.

Interest: Interest accrues at the rate of 18% per year on any taxes that are not deposited in a timely manner. During a period in which an extension is granted, interest accrues at the rate of 1% per month.

H. Failure to Report Amount of Taxes Withheld

An estimated tax amount may be assessed to an employer who fails to timely report the amount of tax withheld for a period. This estimated amount, if left unanswered, may become final and due. An estimated tax amount, once delinquent, may only be adjusted by the filing of an actual deposit report and/or annual reconciliation and accompanying employee wage and tax statements.

I. Refund/Credit for Overpayment(s)

A claim for refund of an overpayment must be filed within four years from the due date of the income or franchise return. A written request for a refund must be submitted to the department within the four-year period and the request must be accompanied by an amended annual reconciliation and employee wage and tax statements (if changed).

Mail claims for refund to Wisconsin Department of Revenue, Mail Stop 3-14, P.O. Box 8920, Madison, WI 53708-8920.

Exception: When an overpayment occurs on a prior period, the withholding liability and payment may be reduced on a later period within the same calendar year, provided the annual reconciliation for that year has not been filed.

J. Other

A person required to collect, account for, or pay withholding taxes, who willfully fails to collect, account for, or pay those taxes to the department, may be held personally liable for such taxes, including interest and penalties.

5. RECONCILIATION PROCESS

A. Preparing Employee W-2

The following must be reported as Wisconsin wages in Box 16 of Form W-2:

- All wages earned by Wisconsin residents, regardless of where services were performed.
- All wages earned by nonresidents for services performed in Wisconsin, unless the individual is a resident of Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky or Michigan and has properly completed Form W-220, Nonresident Employee's Withholding Reciprocity Declaration.

For additional W-2 preparation guidance see examples in Section 7 of Publication 172.

B. Furnishing Employees with Wage and Tax Statements

A wage and tax statement (federal Form W-2) must be prepared for each employee to whom wages were paid during the previous calendar year, regardless of the amount of wages paid, and, even though no tax was withheld.

Give the proper copies of this statement to the employee by the following January 31, or at the time employment is terminated. See "Discontinuing Withholding" for more information. The copy designated for the department must be sent to the department along with the annual reconciliation. Filing options are provided in this publication.

If it is necessary to correct a wage and tax statement after it has been given to an employee, a W-2c must be issued to the employee. If the error affects a reconciliation already filed, file an amended reconciliation.

File corrected wage statements with the department. Options include:

- Submit a corrected EFW2 file,
- Send a W-2c to:
Wisconsin Department of Revenue
PO Box 8920
Madison WI 53708-8920

If a wage statement is lost or destroyed, furnish a copy marked "Reissued by Employer" to the employee.

Any "employee" copies of wage statements which, after reasonable effort, cannot be delivered to employees should be retained by the employer for four years.

Note: Any employer who furnishes a false or fraudulent wage statement or who intentionally fails to furnish a wage statement is subject to a penalty under Wisconsin law.

C. Annual Reconciliation (WT-7) Filing Options

If your Wisconsin withholding tax account was active for any part of the calendar year, you must file an annual reconciliation. Filing and payment options include:

- My Tax Account
<https://tap.revenue.wi.gov/mta/>
- Telefile – call (608) 261-5340 or (414) 227-3895
<https://www.revenue.wi.gov/Pages/FAQS/ise-whtelefile.aspx>
- E-File Transmission
<https://www.revenue.wi.gov/Pages/OnlineServices/wt-7-home.aspx>
- ACH Credit – through your financial institution
<https://www.revenue.wi.gov/Pages/OnlineServices/eft2.aspx>
- Credit Card – through Official Payments 1 (800) 272-9829; use code 5800
<https://www.revenue.wi.gov/Pages/FAQS/crcard.aspx>

The WT-7 reconciles the amount withheld from wages paid to employees with the amount deposited throughout the calendar year on the WT-6 deposit reports. In addition to filing the WT-7, submit supporting wage statements and information returns.

Failure to file a completed annual reconciliation or its equivalent can result in the disallowance of the wage deduction on your individual income tax return or corporation franchise or income tax return.

If an electronic filing waiver has been granted, you may mail Form WT-7 along with supporting wage and information returns.

Note: Amounts collected from the certification (garnishment) of wages should NOT be included as Wisconsin tax withheld on the W-2 form or annual reconciliation.

Late filing fees: Any person who is required to file a withholding report and deposit withholding taxes that fails to do so timely, and the department shows that the taxpayer's action or inaction was due to the taxpayer's willful neglect and not to reasonable cause, shall be subject to a $50 late fee, except for corporations taxed under subch. IV or insurance companies taxed under subch. VII of Ch. 71, Wis. Stats., the late fee is $150.

Penalties: A penalty of 25% of the amount not withheld, properly deposited or paid over may be imposed, upon a showing by the department that the taxpayer's action or inaction was due to the taxpayer's willful neglect and not to reasonable cause.

Appeals: If you are appealing an amount due, you must submit your appeal through My Tax Account, or send a letter to Wisconsin Department of Revenue, P.O. Box 8981, Madison, WI 53708-8981. If sending a letter, be sure to include your Wisconsin withholding number. We do not accept appeal requests made by email or telephone.

D. Wage Statement and Information Return Reporting Requirements

<sup>1</sup> As a safeguard against identity theft, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) allows payers to truncate a payee's taxpayer identification number (SSN, FEIN, or ITIN) on the copy of Form W-2 or 1099 that the payer gives to the payee. The department follows the IRS treatment. Caution: Payers may not truncate the payee's social security number on any forms filed with the department, IRS, or Social Security Administration.

E. Filing Wage and Information Returns

If you file 10 or more wage statements or 10 or more of any one type of information return, you must file electronically. Note: If you use payroll software to prepare your wage statements or information returns, your software may allow you to submit these returns electronically.

Wisconsin Department of Revenue electronic filing options include:

- Key Forms W-2, 1099-MISC, 1099-NEC, 1099-R, and W-2G in My Tax Account when filing the annual reconciliation (WT-7).
- Key Forms W-2, 1099-MISC, 1099-NEC, 1099-R, and W-2G in My Tax Account at any time during the year. Log into My Tax Account and select "Enter."

This application makes it easier to submit information returns omitted from previous submissions. It also provides a user-friendly option for those that don't have active withholding accounts but have a need to submit W-2s, W-2Gs, or 1099s.

- Submit an EFW2 file (for Form W-2) through the department's website here: <https://www.revenue.wi.gov/Pages/OnlineServices/w-2.aspx>.
- Submit an IRS formatted file (for Forms 1099-MISC, 1099-NEC, 1099-R, and W-2G) through the department's website here: <https://www.revenue.wi.gov/Pages/OnlineServices/w-2.aspx>.

If you file fewer than 10 wage statements or fewer than 10 information returns, we encourage you to file electronically using one of the methods above. The department will send you a confirmation number upon receipt. Otherwise mail to the address shown in the chart above.

See Publication 117 for specific wage and information reporting instructions.

F. Extensions

You may request an extension of 30 days for filing the annual reconciliation (WT-7). If an extension is granted for the WT-7, it also applies to the corresponding wage statements and information returns. You may request a 30-day extension for filing W-2s and/or 1099s with the department, if no WT-7 extension is needed. There is no extension of time for filing W-2Gs.

Due dates for the following cannot be extended:

- Furnishing wage statements to employees
- Furnishing information returns to recipients

Extension requests must be received on or before the original due date using one of the following:

- My Tax Account – <https://tap.revenue.wi.gov/mta/>
- Email – DORRegistration@wisconsin.gov
- Mail – Wisconsin Department of Revenue
PO Box 8902
Madison WI 53708-8902

G. Discontinuing Withholding

When an employer goes out of business, the employer must notify the department of the last date of withholding. We will send a letter confirming the account closure. The annual reconciliation must be filed within 30 days of discontinuing withholding.

If the employer ceases to pay taxable wages, or all of the employees are exempt from withholding based on the Employees Wisconsin Withholding Exemption Certificate (Form WT-4), the employer should request to have its Wisconsin withholding account inactivated.

If taxes are again withheld, the employer can request that the account be reactivated by calling (608) 266-2776 or emailing DORRegistration@wisconsin.gov.

H. Wisconsin Information Return Form 9b

Note: Federal Form 1099-MISC, 1099-NEC, 1099-R, or W-2, as appropriate, is required instead of Wisconsin Form 9b if you are required to file the federal Form with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The due date below also applies to these forms.

Who Must File? – Any person including individuals, fiduciaries, partnerships, limited liability companies, and corporations doing business in Wisconsin and making payments to individuals of rents, royalties, or certain nonwage compensation, as provided in Chart 1 of Publication 117.

Notes:

- If an employee receives wages subject to withholding and additional amounts not subject to withholding, the total compensation must be reported on a wage statement instead of Form 9b.
- Payers other than corporations must report rents and royalties only if the payer deducts the payments in computing Wisconsin net income.
- If Wisconsin withholding is reported on the federal form (1099-MISC, 1099-NEC, 1099-R, or W-2), the federal form must be included on the annual reconciliation (Form WT-7).

What is the Due Date for Filing Form 9b? – The due date for filing Form 9b with the department and furnishing a copy to the recipient is January 31. For information about requesting a 30 day extension for filing Form 9b with the department, see Publication 117. Note: The due date for furnishing a copy of Form 9b to the recipient cannot be extended.

Where to file? – For the most current information, see Publication 117.

Combined Federal/State Filing Program – Payers who participate in the Combined Federal/State Filing Program are not required to file Forms 1099 with the Wisconsin Department of Revenue unless there is Wisconsin withholding. Any Form 1099 with Wisconsin withholding must be filed along with the annual reconciliation, Form WT-7.

6. OTHER TAXES TO BE AWARE OF

If you have business activities or earn income in Wisconsin, you may be subject to other Wisconsin taxes. Although the information below is not intended to be all inclusive, it may help you in obtaining information about other Wisconsin taxes. More information is available on our website.

Sales and use tax: A state sales and use tax is imposed in Wisconsin. In addition, some counties in the state impose a county sales/use tax. A chart showing the state, county and stadium tax rates by county is available online.

The sales tax is imposed on the sales price from the retail sale, lease, or rental of all tangible personal property, unless specifically exempt, and taxable services. If you make retail sales of items subject to the Wisconsin sales and use tax, you must register for a Wisconsin seller's permit.

Wisconsin also imposes a use tax on the purchase of tangible personal property or taxable services that are stored, used, or consumed in this state on which sales tax was not charged. This most commonly occurs when tangible personal property is purchased from out-of-state retailers and no sales tax is charged.

Individuals, partnerships, corporations and other organizations registered for sales or use tax with the department should report any use tax on their Wisconsin state and county sales and use tax return. Individuals who are not registered for sales or use tax with the department may report the tax from out-of-state purchases on their income tax return. A line is provided on individual income tax returns called "Sales and use tax due on Internet, mail order, or other out-of-state purchases."

Individual income tax: Every person who is a resident of Wisconsin and who has gross income exceeding a certain amount is subject to Wisconsin income taxes, regardless of where the income is earned.

A person who is a nonresident of Wisconsin is subject to Wisconsin income taxes if he or she has gross income of $2,000 or more from Wisconsin sources, such as personal services performed in Wisconsin or income from a business or property in Wisconsin.

Corporation income or franchise tax: Every corporation organized under the laws of Wisconsin or licensed to do business in Wisconsin (except certain organizations exempt under sec. 71.26(1)(a) or 71.45(1), Wis. Stats.) is required to file a Wisconsin corporate franchise or income tax return, regardless of whether or not business was transacted. Unlicensed corporations are also required to file returns for each year they do business or have certain business activities in Wisconsin.

Estimated tax for individuals: Estimated income tax payments are generally required if you expect to owe $500 or more of income tax with your income tax return. The estimated tax requirement applies to full-year residents, part-year residents, and nonresidents. Interest may be imposed if you fail to make these payments.

Estimated tax for corporations: Corporations must generally make estimated income or franchise tax payments if their current year tax liability will be $500 or more.

Unemployment insurance: For more information contact the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development.

Workers compensation: For more information contact the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development. Remittances for unemployment tax should be made according to Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development instructions. Funds are separate from employee withholding.

7. KEEPING AWARE OF CHANGES IN WISCONSIN TAX LAWS

If you are required to file Wisconsin tax returns, you should be aware of changes in the tax laws, court cases, and other published guidance which may affect how you file returns and compute tax. Information available from our website includes:

Withholding Tax Update: The Withholding Tax Update is an annual publication that provides updated material on general withholding tax laws. The Withholding Tax Update is a supplement to the Wisconsin Employer's Withholding Tax Guide.

Wisconsin Tax Bulletin: The Wisconsin Tax Bulletin is a quarterly publication prepared by the department. The bulletin includes information on most taxes administered by the department, including sales and use, income, franchise, and excise taxes. It includes up-to-date information on new tax laws, interpretations of existing laws, information on filing various types of returns, and on current tax topics. It also gives a brief excerpt of major Wisconsin tax cases decided by the courts and the Wisconsin Tax Appeals Commission.

Rules – Wisconsin Administrative Code: The Wisconsin Administrative Code includes administrative rules that interpret the Wisconsin Statutes. Rules have the force and effect of law. The department has adopted a number of rules concerning interpretations of the various Wisconsin tax laws.

Topical and Court Case Index: The Topical and Court Case Index will help you find a particular Wisconsin Statute, Administrative Rule, Wisconsin Tax Bulletin article or tax release, publication, Attorney General opinion, or court decision that deals with your particular Wisconsin tax question.

WISCONSIN INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING METHODS

INTRODUCTION

Use the wage-bracket tables to determine the amount of income tax to be withheld on the following pages in the same way as those appearing in federal Circular E. There are two alternate methods of determining the amount of tax to be withheld which have been approved by the department. The instructions for these methods appear on pages 25 and 26. Employers who desire to use a method other than the wage-bracket tables or the approved alternate methods must receive permission from the department before the beginning of the payroll period for which the employer desires to withhold the tax by such other method.

An employer has the discretion of withholding an entire month's taxes in one pay period when payroll periods are more than once a month.

SUPPLEMENTAL WAGE PAYMENTS

If supplemental wages - such as bonuses, commissions, or overtime pay - are paid at the same time as regular wages, the income tax to be withheld should be determined as if the total of the supplemental and regular wages were a single wage payment for the regular payroll period.

If supplemental wages are paid between regular payroll periods, the employer may determine the tax to be withheld by adding the supplemental wages either to the regular wages for the current payroll period or to the regular wages for the last preceding payroll period within the same calendar year.

As an alternative to the above methods, the withholding on supplemental wage payments may be determined by estimating the employee's annual gross salary and applying flat percentages to the supplemental payments. (These flat percentages may be used only where supplemental payments are involved; they cannot be used for determining the withholding liability for regular wages and salaries.)

Annual Gross Salary		Approved Flat Percentages
At Least	But Less Than	Percent (%)
0	10,910	4.00
10,910	21,820	5.84
21,820	240,190	6.27
240,190 and over		7.65

USE OF DAILY OR MISCELLANEOUS TABLES

If an employee has no payroll period, determine the tax to be withheld as if the wages were paid on a "daily or miscellaneous" payroll period. This method requires a determination of the number of days (including Sundays and holidays) in the period covered by the wage payment. If the wages are unrelated to a specific length of time (for example, commissions paid on completion of a sale), then the number of days must be counted from the date of payment back to the latest of these three events: (a) the last payment of wages made during the same calendar year, (b) the date employment commenced if during the same calendar year, or (c) January 1 of the same year.

In cases where an employee is paid for a period of less than 1 week and signs a written statement (under penalties of perjury) that the employee does not work for wages subject to withholding for any other employer during the same calendar week, then the employer is permitted to compute the withholding on the basis of a weekly, instead of a daily or miscellaneous payroll period.

See the "daily or miscellaneous" tables on page 28.

ALTERNATE METHODS OF WITHHOLDING WISCONSIN INCOME TAX

Employers are authorized to use these two alternate methods of withholding income tax without receiving any further approval from the department.

Method "A"

1. Procedure

- (a) Multiply the total wage for the payroll period by the number of payroll periods in a year to determine the annual gross earnings.
- (b) Decrease the annual gross earnings by the deduction amount determined from the formula below.
  - For single persons:*
    - If annual gross earnings are less than $15,200, deduction amount = $5,730.
    - If annual gross earnings are $62,950 or more, deduction amount = $0.
    - If annual gross earnings are at least $15,200 but less than $62,950, deduction amount is obtained by subtracting from $5,730, 12% of annual gross earnings in excess of $15,200, i.e. deduction amount = $5,730 – 0.12 (Annual gross earnings – $15,200).
  - For married persons:*
    - If annual gross earnings are less than $21,400, deduction amount = $7,870.
    - If annual gross earnings are $60,750 or more, deduction amount = $0.
    - If annual gross earnings are at least $21,400 but less than $60,750, deduction amount is obtained by subtracting from $7,870, 20% of annual gross earnings in excess of $21,400, i.e. deduction amount = $7,870 – 0.20 (Annual gross earnings – $21,400).
- (c) Multiply the number of exemptions claimed by $400 and subtract the result from the amount determined in (b) above. The result is the annual net wage.
- (d) Using the schedule of tax rates below, calculate the tax on the annual net wage as determined in (c) above.

Schedule of Tax Rates for Withholding
If the annual net wage is:	The amount of tax is:
Not over $10,910	4% of this amount
Over $10,910 but not over $21,820	$436.40 + 5.84% of excess over $10,910
Over $21,820 but not over $240,190	$1,073.54 + 6.27% of excess over $21,820
Over $240,190	$14,765.34 + 7.65% of excess over $240,190

- (e) Divide (d) by the number of payroll periods. The result is the Wisconsin withholding tax for the payroll period.

2. Examples

Example 1:

A single employee has a weekly wage of $300 and claims one withholding exemption. The Wisconsin income tax to be withheld is computed as follows:

(a) Determine annual gross earnings ($300 x 52 = $15,600).....	$15,600.00
(b) Determine deduction amount:
$5,730
12% x (Annual gross earnings – $15,200)	5,682.00
          48
(c) Subtract (b) from (a) .....	$ 9,918.00
(d) Determine exemption amount (1 x $400) .....	400.00
(e) Subtract (d) from (c) to determine annual net wage .....	$ 9,518.00
(f) Compute tax on (e) using schedule of tax rates
Tax on $9,518 at 4% .....	$ 380.72
(g) Divide (f) by the number of payroll periods (52 in this example) to determine the withholding tax for the period .....	$ 7.32

Example 2:

A single employee has a weekly wage of $500 and claims three withholding exemptions. The Wisconsin income tax to be withheld is computed as follows:

(a) Determine annual gross earnings ($500 x 52 = $26,000).....	$ 26,000.00
(b) Determine deduction amount:
$5,730
12% x (Annual gross earnings – $15,200)	4,434.00
          296
(c) Subtract (b) from (a) .....	$ 21,566.00
(d) Determine exemption amount (3 x $400) .....	1,200.00
(e) Subtract (d) from (c) to determine annual net wage .....	$ 20,366.00
(f) Compute tax on (e) using schedule of tax rates
Tax on $10,910	$436.40
Tax on $9,456 at 5.84%	552.23
          988.63
(g) Divide (f) by the number of payroll periods (52 in this example) to determine the withholding tax for the period .....	$ 19.01

Example 3:

A married employee has a biweekly wage of $1,000 and claims three withholding exemptions. The Wisconsin income tax to be withheld is computed as follows:

(a) Determine annual gross earnings ($1,000 x 26 = $26,000).....		$26,000.00
(b) Determine deduction amount:
	$7,870
20% x (Annual gross earnings – $21,400)	- 920	6,950.00
(c) Subtract (b) from (a).....		$19,050.00
(d) Determine exemption amount (3 x $400).....		1,200.00
(e) Subtract (d) from (c) to determine annual net wage.....		$17,850.00
(f) Compute tax on (e) using schedule of tax rates
Tax on $10,910	$436.40
Tax on $6,940 at 5.84%	405.30	$ 841.70
(g) Divide (f) by the number of payroll periods (26 in this example) to determine the withholding tax for the period.....		$ 32.37

Method "B"

1. Procedure

- (a) Multiply the total wage for the payroll period by the number of payroll periods in a year to determine the annual gross earnings.
- (b) Use the appropriate (single or married) withholding schedule below to calculate the tax on the annual gross earnings.

Single Employee - Withholding Schedule

Annual Gross Earnings Are:	The Amount of Tax Is:
$ -0- - $ 5,730	-0-
$ 5,731 - $ 15,200	4% of excess over $5,730
$ 15,201 - $ 16,486	$378.80 plus 4.48% of excess over $15,200
$ 16,487 - $ 26,227	$436.41 plus 6.5408% of excess over $16,486
$ 26,228 - $ 62,950	$1,073.55 plus 7.0224% of excess over $26,227
$62,951 - $ 240,190	$3,652.39 plus 6.27% of excess over $62,950
Over $240,191	$14,765.34 plus 7.65% of excess over $240,190

Married Employee - Withholding Schedule

Annual Gross Earnings Are:	The Amount of Tax Is:
$ -0- - $ 7,870	-0-
$ 7,871 - $ 18,780	4% of excess over $7,870
$ 18,781 - $ 21,400	$436.40 plus 5.84% of excess over $18,780
$ 21,401 - $ 28,308	$589.41 plus 7.008% of excess over $21,400
$ 28,309 - $ 60,750	$1,073.52 plus 7.524% of excess over $28,308
$ 60,751 - $ 240,190	$3,514.46 plus 6.27% of excess over $60,750
Over $240,191	$14,765.35 plus 7.65% of excess over $240,190

- (c) Multiply the number of withholding exemptions claimed by $22 and subtract the amount from the tax determined in (b) above.
- (d) Divide (c) by the number of payroll periods. The result is the Wisconsin withholding tax for the payroll period.

2. Examples:

Example 1:

A single employee has a weekly wage of $300 and claims one withholding exemption. The Wisconsin income tax to be withheld is computed as follows:

(a) Determine annual gross earnings ($300 x 52 = $15,600).....	$ 15,600.00
(b) Compute tax on (a) using the withholding schedule for a single employee.....	396.72
(c) Deduct credit for exemptions (1 x $22).....	22.00
(d) Subtract amount on line (c) from line (b) to determine annual withholding.....	$ 374.72
(e) Divide (d) by the number of payroll periods (52 in this example) to determine the withholding tax for the period.....	$ 7.21

Example 2:

A married employee has a biweekly wage of $700 and claims three withholding exemptions. The Wisconsin income tax to be withheld is computed as follows:

(a) Determine annual gross earnings ($700 x 26 = $18,200).....	$18,200.00
(b) Compute tax on (a) using the withholding schedule for a married employee.....	413.20
(c) Deduct credit for exemptions (3 x $22).....	66.00
(d) Subtract amount on line (c) from line (b) to determine annual withholding.....	$ 347.20
(e) Divide (d) by the number of payroll periods (26 in this example) to determine the withholding tax for the period.....	$ 13.35
